

Lepp Farm Market is always looking for great people to join our already amazing staff.

We are currently looking for a Full Time Customer-Focused Produce Clerk entering into our busy summer season.

If you are, or know someone, who is:

Passionate about local, healthy produce

Knowledgeable with different varieties of fruit and vegetables

Able to lift and pull decks up to 50lbs

A team player who seeks opportunities to create a positive, working environment

Friendly and loves helping make customers happy

We offer:

A family run farm market that has access to the best local produce

Daytime hours - great for university students!

A busy produce department with appreciative customers

A team of willing and enthusiastic co-workers

Previous produce experience is an asset but not required.

We thank all candidates who apply but only those short listed will be contacted
