

Amazing Work Culture. Fun Team Environment. Management and Owners that Care. Guests that Feel Like Family. Bustling Activity. Fresh-Local Produce. Scratch Baked Items. House Made Sausages to Pulled Pork Sandwiches. Passionate Food Culture. Farm to Table. Better When Shared. Lepp Farm Market!

At Lepp Farm Market we are all about extraordinary food and people (and rumor has it, we do a great job at finding both). We've got the food, and now we are looking for more great people! If this lines up with what you are passionate about in the workplace, then Lepp Farm Market has the job for you!

We are currently looking for a highly-motivated person, who can multitask in fast paced situations and loves to interact with guests to join our CASHIER TEAM!

Our Performance Expectations

- efficiently and accurately rings through guests
- greet every guest
- balances tills at the end of the day
- follows task list for the day
- effectively communicates with all team members
- gives excellent service to our guests
- maintains clean work space and washrooms

Successful Cashiers

- has cash and/or guest service experience
- knowledgeable about different types of produce
- passionate about using local ingredients
- are known for their outstanding communication skills
- works a rotation of different shifts, including weekends
- takes direction well

Personal Characteristic of Successful Cashiers

- passionate about great local food and service
- well organized and multitasks under pressure
- detail orientated
- self-motivated
- high level of integrity and respect for others
- works well individually or in a team

Does this sound like the type of work environment you would thrive in?

To apply go to <http://www.leppfarmmarket.com/careers/> to apply for the position of "Cashier." Please include a brief cover letter explaining why you would be a great addition to the Lepp Farm Market Team! For best results, apply in person and ask for our Grocery Manager Stephanie.