

Amazing Work Culture. Fun Team Environment. Management and Owners that Care. Guests that Feel Like Family. Bustling Activity. Fresh-Local Produce. Scratch Baked Items. House Made Sausages to Pulled Pork Sandwiches. Passionate Food Culture. Farm to Table. Better When Shared. Lepp Farm Market!

At Lepp Farm Market we are all about extraordinary food and people (and rumor has it, we do a great job at finding both). We've got the food, and now we are looking for more great people! If this lines up with what you are passionate about in the workplace, then Lepp Farm Market has the job for you!

We are currently looking for a highly motivated person, who loves interacting with customers to join our MEAT AND DELI TEAM!

Our Performance Expectations

- efficiently receive, rotate and put out stock
- greet every customer
- pack deli items
- mix salads
- follows task list for the day
- effectively communicates with all team members
- gives excellent service to our guests

Successful Meat and Deli Clerks

- obtains their Level One Food Safe within 3 months of hire
- knowledgeable about different types of meats
- passionate about using local ingredients
- are known for their outstanding communication skills
- works a rotation of different shifts, including weekends
- takes direction well

Personal Characteristic of Successful Meat and Deli Clerks

- passionate about great local food and service
- well organized and multitasks under pressure
- detail orientated
- self-motivated
- high level of integrity and respect for others
- works well individually or in a team

Does this sound like the type of work environment you would thrive in?

To apply go to <http://www.leppfarmmarket.com/careers/> to apply for the position of "Meat and Deli Clerk." Please include a brief cover letter explaining why you would be a great addition to the Lepp Farm Market Team! For best results, apply in person and ask for our Deli Supervisor Susan or Meat Manager Jason!